

Brian Burch
President
CatholicVote

Brian Burch is the President and Co-Founder of CatholicVote (CV), a national, faith-based advocacy organization headquartered in Madison, WI. The mission of CV is to inspire every Catholic in America to live out the truths of the Catholic faith in public life. The organization fulfills its mission by educating and mobilizing lay Catholics and engaging in direct political and legislative action.

CV publishes the fastest growing online news source in the Catholic world, The LOOP, with over 200,000 daily readers and 3,000 being added every week. CV has received national attention for its online videos, including its recently launched EDIFY initiative. Collectively, CV's videos have garnered nearly 30 million views.

Mr. Burch is the co-author of the America Catholic Daily Reader, a daily reader of notable American saints, sinners, heroes, and rogues that have shaped American public life. He has appeared on Fox News and CNN, and has been covered in the New York Times, Washington Post, Washington Times, Wall Street Journal, Catholic News Agency, National Catholic Register, NPR, and other national publications. He is also a regular guest on talk radio, and Catholic radio stations nationwide.

Mr. Burch is a graduate of the University of Dallas with a degree in Political Philosophy. He is a founding director of the Illinois Catholic Prayer Breakfast and serves on the Board of Seton Montessori School in Villa Park, IL. He received the prestigious Cardinal O'Connor Defender of the Faith Award from Legatus International. Mr. Burch and his wife Sara have nine children and reside in the suburbs of Chicago.
