Mission

I'm Julie Lane with the Apostolate, Defenders of the Holy Name of God. I'm starting a Revolution of Reparation and Hope in the United States. I'm recruiting Defenders to join Jesus' Holy Face Army, a spiritual militia to make reparation and to pray for the salvation of lost souls. A Defender commits to pray daily for one year: the Memorare, the Golden Arrow 3 times, and the Holy Face Chaplet for the daily intentions in reparation for the sins against Almighty God and the Catholic Church. The goal is to create an army of 300 committed Defenders of God in large cities around the United States, who daily make reparation in union as One Body of Christ, so we can win this spiritual war that is raging in our country. Please join me in this Revolution by becoming a Defender to help build a Wall of Prayers around the United States, protecting us from further punishment and saving souls. We will begin on Tuesday March 4th, the Feast of the Holy Face of Jesus. The ultimate goal is to fortify the United States further by adding more parishes who offer a Holy Face Hour of Reparation. This is a time dedicated to public prayers of reparation and adoration of our Beloved Savior. I have instructions and prayer booklets available that make it easy for those interested in beginning a Holy Face Hour at their parish.

Summary of the Holy Face Devotion of Reparation

The Holy Face Devotion is the solution given by Jesus in the 1840's to Sister Marie de St. Pierre, a Carmelite nun in France, to make reparation to the Triune God for blasphemy of the first three commandments. By offering Jesus' Holy Face we can atone for our sins through His merits. "Rejoice My daughter, the hour approaches for the birth of the most beautiful work that has yet appeared on the face of the earth." Jesus gifted her with the Golden Arrow Prayer of Praise, to pierce His Heart delightfully, to counter all the poisoned arrows wounding Him from blasphemy. When she recited it she saw torrents of grace stream from His Sacred Heart for the conversion of sinners. Jesus seeks new Veronicas to wipe and console His Face through reparation. "... this sin of blasphemy is publicly committed everywhere in France, the reparation must likewise be made throughout the nation in every village and in every hamlet; woe to those who do not make reparation!" Jesus showed her a wall around France rising up to heaven, built from prayers of reparation easing the chastisement of France. He also stressed that now He'd punish by revolutionary men, specifically communists. This devotion is destined to save humanity, has produced more miracles than Lourdes, and is the remedy given to combat communism.

Daily Intentions

We pray for the personal intentions of all souls in the Holy Face Army.

Sunday — We pray for the conversion of all souls to honor Sundays, dress modestly to attend the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, receive the Eucharist worthily in a state of grace, spend time with family, avoid all unnecessary servile labor, and to make a greater effort to sanctify Sunday by not giving too much importance to sports and other events; because Sunday is the day set aside for God and rest as stated in the Third Commandment.

Monday — We pray for the conversion of all souls to worship the Triune God in the One, True, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church ending satanism, atheism, communism, freemasonry, Marxism, socialism, modernism, agnosticism, Paganism, Judaism, Islamism, materialism, occultism, witchcraft, heresy and schism; as ordered by God in the first commandment.

Tuesday — We pray for the conversion of all souls who blaspheme the Triune God, His Holy Name (or use it carelessly e.g. OMG), the Catholic Church, His Blessed Mother, the Saints, or sacred items in thought, word or deed; as ordered by God in the second commandment.

Wednesday — We pray for full conversion of all Catholic bishops, priests, religious, parishes, teachers and administrators in schools, all who work for any Catholic entity, all lay Catholics, especially those who are lukewarm or have fallen away from the Catholic faith; to uphold Christ's True Magisterium, to protect the Deposit of Faith, and to be true defenders of the faith by being a living example of Jesus Christ, rejecting the ways of the world, and for their protection from the temptation and the snares of evil.

Thursday — We pray for conversion to the true Catholic faith for all, especially teachers, leaders, elected officials, law makers, judges, and those in the medical field; for their protection from the temptation and the snares of evil and for the grace to reject the ways of the world.

Friday — We pray for the conversion of all souls to support the sanctity of life, made in the image of God their creator both physically and spiritually; ending abortion, euthanasia, assisted suicide, mutilation by surgeries and hormones, impure images, human trafficking, artificial insemination, in vitro fertilization, cloning, all methods of contraception; as stated in the fifth Commandment.

Saturday — We pray for the conversion of all souls to support the sanctity of marriage between one biological male and one biological female, ending all extramarital relationships and lustful thoughts, and for living out chastity as it pertains to one's state in life; as God stated in the Sixth and Ninth Commandments.

Eternal Father, in union with all the Masses being said today, we offer the most holy, bloody, disfigured Face of Your Beloved Son Jesus Christ, in reparation for our sins, blasphemies, and sacrileges and those of the state of _____. Pardon, a thousand times pardon for all these crimes! May Your justice be appeased to hold back our punishment and let the flood of Your Mercy inundate us. We ask for all souls to be converted and for those that refuse, to be confused, so that they do not carry out evil plans against Your Holy Will. Show us Thy Face and we shall be saved. Our Lady of the Holy Name of God, we ask you as the Queen of Heaven, to present the following intentions to Our Heavenly Father: (Daily intentions) Amen.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

May the most holy, most sacred, most adorable, most incomprehensible and ineffable Name of God be forever praised, blessed, loved, adored and glorified in heaven, on earth, and in hell, by all the creatures of God, and by the Sacred Heart of Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Amen.

The little chaplet of the Holy Face has for its object the honoring of the five senses of Our Lord Jesus Christ, and of entreating God for the triumph of His Church and the downfall of Her enemies. This chaplet comes from Sister Marie de Saint Pierre, a Carmelite nun of Tours, France. The first 30 beads recall to mind the 30 years of Christ's private life. They are divided into 5 groups of 6 beads with the intention of honoring the 5 senses, which have their seat principally in His Holy Face, and of rendering homage to all the sufferings which Our Lord endured in His Face, through each one of these senses. The set of 3 beads recalls to mind the public life of Our Savior and have for their object the honoring of all the wounds of His adorable Face. The Glory Be is repeated 7 times in total in honor of the 7 Last Words of Jesus Upon the Cross, and the 7 Sorrows of the Immaculate Virgin.

Holy Face Chaplet sent to Sister Marie de Saint Pierre's eldest brother, Prosper Eluere, in 1885 by the Discalced Carmelites of New Orleans, who were also the editors of the English version of her first biography.

Begin on the Cross [1] — O God, incline unto my aid; O Lord, make haste to help me.
Single Bead [2] — Glory Be ...

Repeat the following 5 times, meditating on how the 5 senses affected Jesus' Holy Face during the Passion — Touch, Hearing, Sight, Smell, and Taste:

Single Bead [3] — Introduce the sense, My Jesus, mercy! Glory Be ...

6 Beads [4] — Arise O Lord, and let Thy enemies be scattered, and let all that hate Thee flee from before Thy Face.

Single Bead [5] (Meditate on all the wounds of His adorable Face) — My Jesus, mercy! Glory Be ...

3 Beads [6] — Arise, O Lord, and let Thy enemies be scattered, and let all that hate Thee flee from before Thy Face.

End on Holy Face Medal (7) O God, our Protector, look on us, and cast Thine eyes upon the Face of Thy Christ. Amen

Scripture Reflections

Judges 6-8 Summary

Gideon rounded up 32,000 men to fight the Midianites. The Lord had Gideon test the men. 22,000 quit before the big battle. The Lord had Gideon test the remaining 10,000, and Gideon eliminated another 9,700 men. So, Gideon's army was down to 300. The Lord was doing this so that Gideon's army could not claim that they won by their own power. On the day of the big battle God caused the Midianites to fight each other, and many were killed by their own countrymen! The 300 won with at least 120,000 Midianites killed.

1 Maccabees 3:16-19

"When he approached the ascent of Beth-bor'on, Judas went out to meet him with a small company. But when they saw the army coming to meet them, they said to Judas, "How can we, few as we are, fight against so great and strong a multitude? And we are faint, for we have eaten nothing today." Judas replied it is easy for many to be hemmed in by few, for in heaven there is no difference between saving by many or by few. It is not the size of the army that victory in battle depends, but strength comes from Heaven."

Jonah 1:1-2; 3:4-10

"Now the word of the Lord came to Jonah the son of Amit'tai, saying, 'Arise, go to Nin'evah, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness has come up before me. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's journey. And he cried, 'Yet forty days, and Nin'evah shall be overthrown!' And the people of Nin'evah believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them. Then tidings reached the king of Nin'evah and he arose from his throne, removed his robe, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he made proclamation and published through Nin'evah, 'By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, or drink water, but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry mightily to God; yes, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence which is in his hands. Who knows, God may yet repent and turn from his fierce anger, so that we perish not?' When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God repented of the evil which he had said he would do to them; and he did not do it."

Ezekiel 37:9-10

"Then he said to me. 'Prophesy to the spirit, prophesy, son of man, and say to the spirit, Thus says the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O spirit, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.' So I prophesied as he commanded, and the spirit came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army."

2 Chronicles 7:14-15

"If my people who are called by my name humble themselves, pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayer that is made in this place."

Holy Face Quotes

Jesus to Sister Marie de St. Pierre of Tours of the Holy Family

"Oh, you, who are my friends, and my faithful children, look and see if there be any sorrow like mine. Everywhere My enemies despise and insult both My Eternal Father and My Church, the cherished Spouse of my Heart. Will no one rise up to console Me by defending the glory of My Father, and the honor of My Spouse, which has been so cruelly attacked? I can no longer remain in the midst of a people that will continue to be so heedless and so ungrateful. Look at the torrents of tears that stream from My eyes! Can I find no one to wipe away these tears by making reparation to My Father, and imploring forgiveness for the guilty?"

"I seek Veronicas to wipe and venerate My Divine Face which has so few adorers!"

"By My Holy Face you will obtain the conversion of many sinners. Nothing that you ask in making this offering will be refused to you."

"By My Holy Face you will work wonders."

"The whole earth is covered with crimes and the violation of the first three of the ten Commandments of God has aroused the anger of My Father...I desire, and this most urgently, that there be formed to honor the Name of My Father an association, properly approved and well organized."

Sister Marie de St. Pierre of Tours of the Holy Family

"Our Lord showed me this Association as an army of brave soldiers, uniting themselves to Him as to their Commander-in-Chief, to defend the glory of His Father. It is His will that this militia be called, The Defenders of the Holy Name of God."

"His love in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar was not appreciated because of the lack of faith among Christians. In order that I may keep Him company in His loneliness, he has delightfully chained my heart and mind to remain at His feet before the Altar, where I continually adore His most Holy Face hidden under the veil of the Eucharist."

"By virtue of His Holy Face offered to the Eternal Father, we can appease His anger and obtain the conversion of the wicked and of blasphemers."

"The gift of His adorable Countenance, which He presented to me on that day, was next to the Sacraments, the greatest gift He would bestow."

"Another day, He presented to my view the multitude of souls who are daily falling into hell; and invited me in the most touching manner to fly to the rescue of these poor sinner. He made me comprehend the real obligation of the Christian towards these unfortunate, blind creatures, who precipitate themselves into the eternal abyss; whose eyes would have been opened if charitable souls had interceded in their behalf... Oh, what longing desire I beheld in the Heart of Jesus for the salvation of sinners! What light I received from him on the efficacy of offering prayers in their behalf!"

St. Therese of Lisieux of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face

"The little flower transplanted to Mount Carmel was to expand under the shadow of the Cross. The tears and blood of Jesus were to be her dew, and her Sun was His adorable Face veiled with tears. Until my coming to Carmel, I had never fathomed the depths of the treasures hidden in the Holy Face."

"However tender was the devotion which Saint Therese had for the Child Jesus, it cannot be compared to the devotion she had for The Holy Face."

— St Therese's sister Pauline

"Devotion to the Holy Face was, for Therese, the crown and complement of her love for the Sacred Humanity of Our Lord. The Blessed Face was the mirror wherein she beheld the Heart and Soul of her Well-Beloved. Just as the picture of a loved one serves to bring the whole person before us, so in the Holy Face of Christ Therese beheld the entire Humanity of Jesus. We can say unequivocally that this devotion was the burning inspiration of the Saint's life. ... Her devotion to the Holy Face transcended, or more accurately, embraced, all the other attractions of her spiritual life."

— St Therese's sister Celine

Venerable Leo Dupont known as the Holy Man of Tours

"Make Thy Face to shine upon Thy servant, and teach me Thy justification."

"Communists would one day enslave the world; that is, close up their churches, and make them slaves of the state ... unless reparation is done, unless men come before the Face of their Savior to ask his forgiveness and his help!"
